

We are committed to protecting personal information and respecting people's rights as to how their information is handled. The Community Centre is owned and operated by Reigate Methodist Church, therefore we operate under the same privacy policy, which has been updated in accordance with GDPR and can be found here